About the Position

The Driver is responsible for providing safe, reliable, and timely transportation services for students and staff, including transportation to off-campus conferences, meetings, and official university events. The role also includes supporting basic operational tasks within the university during non-driving hours.

Key Responsibilities

- Safely transport students between accommodation and the university according to assigned schedules
- Provide transportation support for university staff when required for official duties
- Ensure punctual pick-up and drop-off times while following approved routes
- Maintain cleanliness and good condition of the assigned vehicle at all times
- Conduct daily vehicle checks (fuel, tires, lights, brakes) and report any issues immediately.
- Ensure compliance with traffic laws, university policies, and safety regulations
- Assist with basic administrative or operational tasks during free time, such as document delivery or simple errands

- Support logistics activities within the university when requested (e.g., moving light items or assisting departments)
- Maintain confidentiality and professionalism when dealing with students, staff, and university matters.
- Keep accurate records of trips, mileage, and fuel consumption if required
- Report any incidents, accidents, or delays promptly to the line manager
- Perform any other related duties as assigned by management

Qualifications and Requirements

- Valid UAE driving license
- Proven experience as a driver, preferably in an educational or institutional environment.
- Good knowledge of local roads and traffic regulations
- Ability to communicate politely and professionally with students and staff.
- Basic understanding of vehicle maintenance.
- Physically fit and able to perform light duties when required.
- Flexible and willing to support other tasks as assigned.
- Proficiency in English and Arabic

Working Conditions

- Working hours may vary based on student and staff transportation needs
- May require occasional overtime or weekend work
- Must adhere to university policies and code of conduct
